“ To my family, my prayers are with each and everyone of you. I will miss you gg-pa!!.... I have a good memory of him, we were at uncle jimmy's wedding and I asked gg-pa why he was not dancing, He replied " I dont dance " so I walked behind his chair, placed my hands on his shoulders and started swaying back and forth and then he started doing the same thing. I asked him " thought you didnt dance? " and he just smiled at me. I also remember Just crawling up in his lap when I was little and playing with his beard. :) Thank you for the good memories gg-pa :)

“ I want to start by saying my thoughts and prayers are with my family. Even though GG-pa was not my grandparent, I still thought of him that way. I never met my grandparents, so it was a pleasure to have met GG-pa and have him in my life. Also grateful Autum was lucky enough to have not only grandparents in her life but Great Grandparents.

GG-Pa you will be Missed!!

“ My thoughts and prayer are with the entire family (especially Grandma, Aunt Dee, Kaitlynn & Timothy) during this difficult time.

I wanted to share a funny memory of Grandpa Brown. It's the fondest memory I have of him. When I was about eight or nine years old. A man came to artificially inseminate one of the cows. Grandpa thought it would be a good idea to make this a family event, so my mom (Marsha), Grandma, Grandpa, my brothers (Jayson & Jeremy), my sister (Melissa) and I all went to watch the cow be inseminated. I remember how Grandpa smiled at how disgusted my siblings and I were when the man stuck his arm inside the cow's rear end and it went to the bathroom on him. Then he thought it would be funny to bribe us "city" kids to shake the man's soiled, but gloved, hand. My brothers refused, but there was no way I was going to turn down $5. Looking back I'm not sure I got such a good deal, but I have never seen Grandpa chuckle so hard as he did that day. I will miss you Grandpa!
