

Robert Lee Fenoglio

October 18, 1942 - October 21, 2017

Robert "Bob" Fenoglio, of Knoxville, passed away Saturday, October 21, 2017 at the Good Samaritan Society in Indianola, Iowa.

Robert's wishes were to be cremated, and no services are planned.

Comments

---

“ Bob was originally in my class in Knoxville High School...class of 1960. I think he and I worked together at Hy-Vee also during high school. I believe he fell behind in school at some point and then later dropped out and entered the U. S. Army, I think about 1959 or early 1960. Then he entered the U. S. Marines and was a career man. Four of us high school friends of Bob visited him while he was later disabled by a crippling disease and in an "adult foster home" in Winterset. This was in approximately 2007. That was the last time I saw him. I am sorry that he is gone and want to extend my deepest condolences to his family and loved ones. Bob always had a smile on his face and a cheerful sparkle in his eye.

Maurice "Moe" Wadle Coralville Iowa

Moe Wadle - October 28, 2017 at 04:14 AM

“ I was fortunate enough to have been one of Bob's aides. The medical foster home moved from winterset to small town indianola where i became employed. Bob stole my heart. His brother Charlie too. I loved them like my own family. From reminiscing on his military days. To his time in California as a hells angel, to funny hitchhiking stories, his daughter , trips to italy , his love for zz top, the jokes he played & that cocaine nail he would never let me cut. Robert ... I love you. And im sorry the last time i visited i couldnt have stayed longer. Bless your soul. You were so ready to go home. You always told me , " when he called. You would go." Im glad you got your wish. Im glad you are in peace. I miss you old man. And charlie if you see this Ilove you too. And hope you are well.

Paige - April 09, 2018 at 12:38 PM